

ANTON OLSON

Anton Olson was born September 8, 1860, in Ottsgin, Follinge, Jamtland, Sweden, and died October 24, 1943, son of Oloff Erickson Olson and Karin Olofson.

He married Augusta Josephine Erickson on June 11, 1874, at Peoa, Utah, and she died on December 24, 1922, daughter of Eric P. Erickson and Martha Anderson Olson Erickson.

Children: Arthur, Celia, Martha Katharine, Anthony, Clarence, Dean and Harold.

Anton Olson came to Heber in 1880. Prior to coming to Utah he was a member of the Lutheran church and his wife, Augusta, a member of the LDS Church. Anton Olson worked in the mines when he first came to Utah. In Heber he was a carpenter, having learned the trade in Sweden. In 1904 he built the home now owned by Mrs. and the late Dr. Wherritt.

Their temple work was performed after they died.

Prescott Honored on 80th Birthday

2 May 1985

A.D. (Dick) Prescott was born May 9, 1905 in Francis, Summit County Utah to Amas and Melvina Davis Prescott. He had seven brothers Elvin, Tom, Ralph, Frank and Marvell all deceased. Earl of Francis, Darrell of Heber City. Also two sisters Nettie Simmons of Francis and Ethlene Sweeney of Lakeland Florida.

He attended school in Francis and Kamas until at the age of 18 he went to work in the Park City Mines and he worked there almost continually for 47 years until he retired in 1970 at age 65.

On June 1, 1923 he married Irene Atkinson in Coalville, Utah and their marriage was later solemnized in the S.L. LDS Temple. They were the parents of six children. Mrs. Oren (Wanda) Smith of Lyman, Wyo. Eva who passed away of drowning in Lakes Hot Pots in Midway. Mildred, and twins Ira and Irene who died in infancy and Weldon of Kamas.

Dick worked in the mines and farmed until 1945 when he built the "Chick-a-Dilly Inn" in Francis which he and Irene operated until her death in 1947. In 1948 he married Maye McNeil. She was the mother of four children. Mrs. LaVerl (Barbara) Simmons who lives in Mtn. View, Wyo., Mrs. Lowell (Colleen) Thacker of Whiterocks, Utah, Phillip McNeil (deceased) and Michael and Nelda McNeil of

A.D. (Dick) Prescott

Heber City. Dick and May are the parents of Richard Prescott and Loie of Mtn. View, Wyo. They now have 26 grandchildren and 28 great grandchildren.

With the help of all the family they continued to operate the Chick a Dilly until 1964 when they sold out and moved to Kamas.

Dick has always been active in community affairs. He was on the original town Board of Francis for two terms when the town was incorporated and again in 1960 when he along with other board members succeeded in getting the first water system for the town. Dick was chairman of the project. He also worked on the Duchesne Tunnel and the Rockport Dam.

After moving to Kamas, he as chairman and all the homeowners from 2nd to 4th South joined together and with the cooperation of the Town Board and the State Road Crew, hired a contractor and installed curb, gutter and sidewalks and also made the road ten feet wider making it safer and a very attractive addition to the town.

He was also one of the original officers of the South Summit Senior Citizens and helped in securing the property on 4th So. and Main St. and getting a beautiful building erected.

He has worked as Crossing Guard for the Elementary School District for the past 12 years and is still on the job. He loves it very much. The children and the teachers are his best friends.

He has also been a faithful church worker all his life and has held many positions. H was on the Stake Sunday School Board and has been a Home Teacher for 18 years. He holds the office of a High Priest at the present time.

His family invites all his friends and relatives to come and wish him a Happy Birthday on May 11, 1985 at the Kamas Town Park from 2 to 4 p.m. There will be a program at 3 p.m. No gifts please. We just wish the pleasure of your company.

NEPHI PROBST

Bishop of Midway Second Ward 1935-1937.

Nephi Probst, the son of John Ulrich and Susanna Gertsch Probst, was born June 17, 1900 at Midway, Wasatch County, Utah. His parents were converts to the gospel from Switzerland. They did not know each other until they met in Midway.

He herded sheep, worked at the mine and studied the gospel and planned to fill a mission. When 19 years of age he received his missionary call to the Northern States. He labored in Chicago, Illinois. Later he was made Conference President and transferred to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. His joys in missionary work were great. As Paul of old, he also tasted the bitter as well as the sweet. On one occasion he was severely beaten by one of his contacts.

While in Milwaukee he met Elizabeth Beck, also a missionary. She and her companion were released from their mission the same day he was, in November, 1922, and traveled home together. This was the beginning of a romance which ended in marriage December 21, 1923. To them were born ten children:

Verle, married Kenneth Young;
Grant, married Barbara McAfee;
Faye, married Hyrum Bates;

775

Boyd, married Elena Graham;
Emery, married Marjorie Buckley;
Geneil, married Alvin Zufelt;
Evan, married Bonita Talbot;
Kyle;
Paul;
Janice.

He has served faithfully in many church positions. He was president of the YMMIA from November, 1922 to December, 1923 when he became Presiding Elder at Keetley where he served until June, 1924. He was counselor in the Stake Sunday School to L. C. Montgomery September 11, 1927 to September 8, 1935. He was Senior President of the 96th Quorum of Seventies, which position his father held previously.

In 1935 he was called to be the Bishop of the Midway Second Ward. During this time the church grounds were landscaped and beautified; pine trees were brought from the head of Provo River and planted. He served as Bishop for two years until September, 1937 when he was asked by President H. Clay Cummings to be second counselor in the Stake Presidency with Don Clyde as first counselor and Charles Broadbent, stake clerk.

Ten years later when Don Clyde moved to Provo, he was chosen as first counselor to President Cummings on November 2, 1947, which position he held until the release of the Stake Presidency November 16, 1958. He has spent many happy hours of church service administering to the sick, contacting the young people, and building up a friendship among his associates which is priceless.

He had studied to be a railroad clerk; but when he returned from his mission, he bought a piece of ground to farm and became a dairy farmer. He was also a miner. For several years he was Secretary of the Midway Waterworks and also County Weed Supervisor. During the Second World War he served as Chairman of the Wasatch County War Board, having charge of the rationing of gas, machinery, etc.

One of the outstanding events of his life was an invitation to attend the dedication of the Los Angeles Temple March 8, 1959. President J. Reuben Clark Jr., and Elder Henry D. Moyle escorted him and President Cummings to the stand at the opening session of the dedication.

WILLIAM AND JOANNA
FOTHERINGHAM
RICHARDSON

This Scottish family came to Heber in 1863. It had been eight years since they left Scotland. They both joined The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1849 and 1850. William was the son of William and Isabell Richardson born 18 June 1829 at Parkhead Lanark, Scotland.

Joanna Fotheringham Richardson was born to Francis and Janet Walker Fotheringham December 11, 1827. The grandfather Walker wouldn't let them live together so the baby was wrapped in a blanket and taken to her father. A young couple took the baby to rear. When about eleven years old she found out who her parents were. The Fotheringhams had one other daughter, Janet.

William and Joanna met at church after they were baptized and were married 20 June 1851. They had two children born in Scotland. Janet, the oldest, fell in hot ashes when she was two and died from the burns. William was born in 1854. They sailed for America on the 18th of February 1856. They landed in New York the 27th of March 1856. All the voyage across and going to Pennsylvania Joanna was very sick. Her second son, John Thornton, was born the 13th of April 1856. Two more children were born in Pennsylvania. James, January 1858 and Harriet, who married Thomas Todd, was born the 20th of December 1859, at Mount Vernon, Pennsylvania. They moved to Illinois where Robert was born December 1861. While coming to Utah James died of smallpox. They started for Utah the 10th of August 1863, and arrived in Salt Lake the 4th of October 1863. They came to Heber from Salt Lake with George Muir, coming up Parleys Canyon. There were only three houses in Heber she could see. Joanna had to sell clothes to buy wheat the first winter. Arch was born December 11, 1863, shortly after they arrived. Work was scarce. Robert and William had been sick on the way with smallpox and mountain fever. Then Robert took scarlet fever and died the 15th of September 1865. David was born the 1st of October 1865. They bought their first home in 1866, and it was the first rock home built in Heber.

They had their endowments in Salt Lake and were sealed by Brother George Q. Cannon. Isabel was born the 16th of March 1863 and married Adolphus Sessions. Joanna was born the 27th of February 1878 and married John Simpson.

William had to live a rough life mining and in timber to make a living for his large family. He was away from home most of the time and Joanna had to rear the children as best she could.

They were always good friends of the James Watson family who were very good to them in Scotland, Pennsylvania and Illinois. They went to their home when they came to Heber. They always stayed true to the gospel and after moving to Center Creek were rebaptized in 1877. He worked in Sunday School and Young Men's Mutual. Joanna worked in Relief Society in Heber and in Center Creek was a counselor to Sister Cluff for thirteen years and counselor to Sister Hundley. She was always willing to do her duty to help the needy. She walked from the ranch in Center Creek to meetings.

Joanna died at Thomas Todd's home in Heber January 14, 1901, and William died in Jensen, Uintah County, August 24, 1904. Both are buried in Heber.

ROBERT BELL AND ELIZABETH WRIGHT ROSS

Robert Bell Ross was born in a little town near Edinburgh, Scotland, on March 4, 1832, to Robert Ross and Mary Patterson of Scotland. His father died a few weeks before his birth leaving his mother a widow with a large family to raise. With the help of an Uncle Robert, he received an exceptional education for those days. He became a successful mining contractor. In his young manhood he, with some of his sisters, were converted to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. On New Year's Eve of the year 1854, he was married to Elizabeth Wright, daughter of Robert Wright and Janet Stevenson. Elizabeth was born February 28, 1832 at Belleston, Scotland. They were married by an Elder of the church.

This couple was blessed with but one child, a son, Robert Bell Jr., who was born January 22, 1857. Later the same year when little Robert was but a tiny babe the family with some relatives and other Saints, among whom was Karl G. Maeser, came to America. They crossed the stormy Atlantic in the ship Tuscarora. After the long ocean voyage where they experienced severe storms and much illness they landed at Philadelphia. The family did not come to Utah at that time, but went to Maryland where relatives resided. From Maryland they went to Kentucky and to Illinois. In the year 1862 they joined a company of Saints who were leaving to cross the great plains to come to Utah. They came with the Homer Duncan Company. After the trials and hardships incidental to these long journeys they arrived at Cache Valley where they resided during the winter. In the spring they went to Virginia City, Nevada. Here Mr. Ross's mining ability stood him in good stead. In the spring of 1873 the family settled in Midway, where they remained the rest of their lives. Elizabeth Wright Ross was an expert with the embroidery needle, and was an excellent dressmaker. No one could prepare a better meal, and her skill in gardening is known to all who knew her. She lived to be 92 years old. Robert Bell Ross died in Midway October 12, 1895, and Elizabeth Ross died October 16, 1924, in Midway.
